History: Year 12-13

Travellers in the Third Reich - Real stories of life before and after the rise of the Nazis from foreigners who visited.

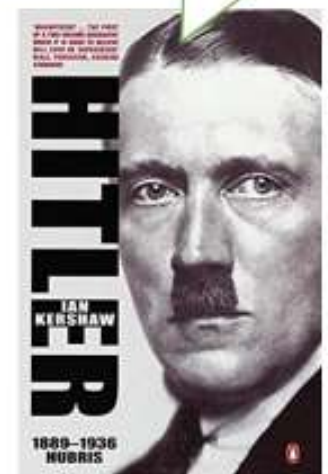

The King's Assassin - Readable account of James's favourite, and probable lover, George Villiers.

MacGregor's 'Germany' - A brilliant, accessible book that shows German history through artefacts. A good way of contextualising the Nazi story.

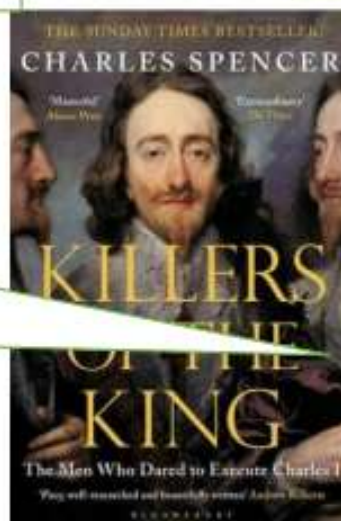

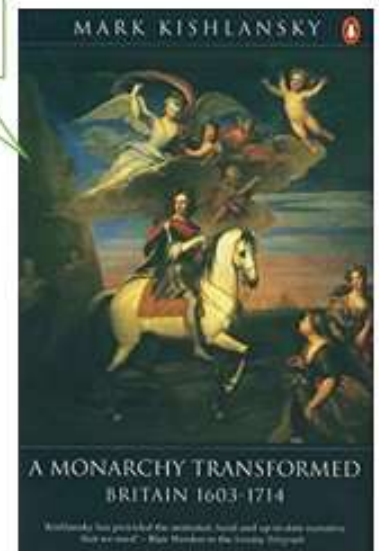

White King - a revisionist and readable biography of Charles I

Hitler - Kershaw's brilliant two volume biography of Adolf Hitler

Final Solution - a moving account of the holocaust through individual stories.

A Monarchy transformed - a very readable account of the whole Stewart period.

Killers of the King - the fascinating story of what happened to all those who signed Charles' I's execution.
